

John's Second Letter

Greetings

¹ From the elder, to the lady chosen by God and her children. I truly love you all, and I am not the only one but all who know the truth love you as well. ² We love you for the sake of the truth, which lives in us and will be with us forever.

³ Grace, mercy, and peace will be ours – the gift of God, the Father, and of Jesus Christ, the Father's Son – in truth and love.

Live in truth and love

⁴ It was a great joy to me to find the lives of some of your children guided by the truth, in obedience to the command that we received from the Father.

⁵ And now I implore you, dear lady, let us love one another. This is not a new command I am writing to you. It is the command we have had from the beginning. – Let us love one another. ⁶ And this is love – to live in obedience to the Father's commands. This is the command as you learned from the beginning, to live a life of love. ⁷ I say this because many deceivers have gone out into the world – men who do not acknowledge that Jesus Christ came in flesh and blood. Any such person is a deceiver and antichrist. ⁸ Take care so that you do not what we have worked for but instead receive your full reward. ⁹ Anyone who goes beyond and fails to live inside of the teaching of Christ does not have God. The person who lives inside that teaching – they have both the Father and the Son. ¹⁰ If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive them into your house or even welcome them; ¹¹ because the person who welcomes them is sharing with them in his evil work.

Final words

¹² Though I have many other things to tell you, I would rather not use paper and ink. Instead I hope to come and see you, and to speak with you face to face, so that our joy may be complete.

¹³ The children of your sister, who is chosen by God, send you their greetings.
